The novices, and particularly those from abroad, were not wholly bad, but it appeared as though there the markets from their letharny or impart confidence to bulls, who seemed disgusted over the late actions of the market and entirely without confidence. Wheat, as the chief speculative grain, got the worst of it to-day and lost heavily in price, but the course grains were no better off, though their losses were not nearly so pronounced.

When wheat opened up this morning radiers were confronted by an array of dis-ouraging conditions that more than ever discouraged and disgusted them with the bull side of the struction, and it was entire-ly due to their throwing their long stuff on the market right at the outset that the first setback took pince. There was need for the bears to hummer the market and for the bears to manner to making short they turned their attention to taking short wheat in which there was a profit, with the result that most of the buying during the early hours was by them. The chief bearish factor this morning was cables from abroad, and especially those referring the the Livermont market which not only to the Liverpool market, which not only opened $4 off, but declined $4 more in a short time, London reperting cargoes on passage easy for white and 34 lower for red.

Again the receipis here were not favorable, being reported at (2,500 bu, which were but little less than the 20,000 bu, received to-day a week ago and considerably in excess of the Like in. arriving here a year ago. Shigments were $2,000 bu, and there was a decrease in local stocks of 10,000 bu, but these appeared to have no effect. The weather in the Northwest was not as bad as first reported, and receipts at the markets there were 176 cars, against $62 a week ago, and 78 a year ago.

Provisions.

Provisions were weak at the opening because of 5c decline in price of hogs, and the weakness in grain markets prevented a raily. Nothing was done in Oct. pork, for which $12 was bid, with a seller at $14. Jan. pork declined to $11.67%, a decline since yesterday of $27%c. Lard lost 12%c, Oct. ribs 12%c, and Jan. ribs 17%c. Local hog receipts were 25.800, and the aggregate at the chief Western packing centers, including Chiengo, $1.50, against 73.200 has year. Estimated for te-morrow's run 31.900 head. Liverpool quoted 6d decline in Cumberland out paron.
